Kimberley Campisano is a San Francisco Bay Area photo-based interdisciplinary artist and educator. Through her art she explores the effects of time, memory, and liminal states of being. She has exhibited extensively in both solo and group contexts, as well as in collaboration with performing artists. In her roles as artist and teacher, Campisano engages in dialogues around the boundaries of control and chance, self and other.

She is a recent Kala Artist in Residence and holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Photography from Arizona State University as well as a Master of Fine Arts from John F Kennedy University.
